Health and Safety Policy – Page 1 of 3

Drum Runners provides the following activities:

Creative therapies consisting of music workshops, sound therapies, creative writing and music technology.

This Policy will operate within the ethos and principles of Drum Runners to promote equality of opportunity and anti-discriminatory practice towards all persons (freelance staff, students, volunteers including trustees and service users).

Drum Runners is committed to protecting the health and safety of its freelance staffs, students, volunteers or service users and all others with whom our work brings us into contact. Drum Runners's policy is to aim to provide a safe and healthy working environment for everyone.

Drum Runners recognises its responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work Act and other related legislation. Drum Runners believes that communication, co-operation and consultation with all is essential and a copy of this policy is available to each person.

Action may be brought if there is neglect or abuse of health and safety requirements.

Responsibilities:

The final overall responsibility for the health and safety rests with the Workshop Facilitator(s). They will:

- Have discussed, researched, produced, adopted and distributed this Health and Safety policy.
- Discuss Health and Safety issues at least once a year.
- Keep up to date with responsibilities on health and safety and revise this policy as necessary.
