Privacy Policy – Page 1 of 3

Drum Runners are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This policy, together with any other documents referred to within, sets out the basis on which we will process any personal data that we collect from you, or that you provide to us. Please read the following carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we will treat it.

For the purpose of the Data Protection Act 1998 (Act) / EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016 (GDPR), the data controller is Paul Midgley from Drum Runners.

You can contact us by email paul@drumrunners.org or by phone 07932 448627.

2.2 If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence;

2.3 We may also ask you to complete surveys that we use for research purposes, although you do not have to respond to them;

2.4 Details of any transactions you carry out through our site

2.5 Details of your visits to our site including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data, weblogs and other communication data and the resources that you access; and

2.6 Any information incidental to that listed above.

2.7 We also collect Biometric data (heart rates or brainwaves). This information is only displayed as first names only of each individual or as an aggregate team score. We would ask for a further opt in signed by individuals or teams for the purposes of joint promotional activities that required identifying team members.

2.9 All data collected via Newsletter sign up forms via MailerLite will be GDPR compliant and allow unsubscribe functions.

2.10 Data collected via our bluetooth marketing will not collect personal data and only send information upon public request (data captured will be mobile device name only).

3. Information we process about End Users

3.1 In addition to the above, we process information on behalf of our customers or partners about End Users who take part in any of our services or activities including:

3.1.1 Information submitted to our customers or partners directly;

3.1.2 Information collected by technology such as Google Analytics and other technology such as cookies placed on our customers' or partners' websites (please see "IP addresses and cookies" below for more information); and

3.1.3 Information acquired from information suppliers or generally available on the internet.
